Lake Powell Resorts & Marinas Hosts Special Weekend Experience with Navajo Code Talkers

Package includes Presentations by Surviving Code Talkers, Author Sally McClain

(PAGE, Ariz.) – May 12, 2010 – Lake Powell Resorts & Marinas is hosting a special weekend experience with the Navajo Code Talkers, a group of Navajo men who saved thousands of American lives during WWII. The weekend program, scheduled June 4-6, 2010, will include presentations by Sally McClain, author of Navajo Weapon: The Navajo Code Talkers and three Navajo Code Talkers, who will share their personal experiences of transmitting secret code in the Pacific.

Lake Powell Resort is offering a special 'Code Talkers' package that includes a two-night stay in a Traditional or Lakeview room, daily breakfast for two, two tickets on a Rainbow Bridge Centennial Boat tour and a copy of McClain's book. Available the weekend of June 4-6, the package price starts at $489 and is based on single or double occupancy. To book, please use promo code: CodeTalker.

Evening presentations are scheduled on Friday, June 4 and Saturday, June 5 with morning presentations on Saturday, June 5 and Sunday, June 6, in the Navajo Room. During the presentation, McClain will describe how the program saved thousands of American lives during World War II in the Pacific. The three surviving Code Talkers will also be on hand to share their personal stories. McClain will be available to sign copies of her book in front of the gift shop directly following each presentation.

"The Navajo Code Talkers have had a significant influence on the history and culture of the Southwest region. We're honored to share their personal stories, as well as Sally McClain's expertise, with our guests," said David Sloma, vice president of operations for Lake Powell

Resorts & Marinas. “With the Code Talkers package, we hope to allow travelers to absorb the rich history of our region and explore the natural wonders of the lake, including Rainbow Bridge, at an affordable price.”
