Lake Powell Resorts & Marinas Offer One-of-a-Kind Winter Vacations

Explore the lake, links and trails at considerable discounts this winter

Page, Ariz. – January 3, 2013 – Lake Powell’s largest recreation provider, ARAMARK Parks and Destinations, offers great specials through the winter season. From golfing, hiking to houseboating – adventures await everyone!

“Winter guests will experience the natural beauty of Lake Powell without the summer crowds or rates,” says Eric Johnson, vice president of operations for Lake Powell Resorts & Marinas. “In addition to exploring almost 2,000 miles of shoreline in a gorgeous canyon setting by houseboat, guests can now hike the Vermilion Cliffs and play a round of golf on one of the most scenic courses in the region.”

“One of the best aspects about choosing Lake Powell for your winter vacation is that while there is still much to do, the lake is quieter and more peaceful than other seasons. For those looking for a serene and scenic alternative to the hectic pace of the holidays, Lake Powell is the perfect getaway,” explains Johnson.

Packages are based on double occupancy (except where noted), and are subject to availability. The following packages may not be combined other discounts or offers, and some restrictions apply:
